

Middle Eastern Campaign Ribbon. Lewis was also selected for the Infantry OCS Hall of Fame for obtaining field grade rank starting from the rank of private.

After a distinguished military career, in 1972 Lewis retired at the rank of colonel from the Army. Following his retirement, Lewis returned to Marion and remained very active in the community. He served as administrator for the local Public Housing Authority, formed Stewart Real Estate, rehabilitated two historic homes and a Marion commercial building, served as director of special services for the district attorney, 4th Judicial Circuit, AL. He was also deeply involved in the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the Perry County Historical Society, and the Lions Club. As an active member of St. Wilfred's Episcopal Church, Lewis served as senior warden of the Vestry and led the revival of the church's historic cemetery.

Lewis is loved and will be missed by his two sons Lewis Minor Stewart, Jr. and SG Matthew Rebel Stewart, U.S. Army, Retired, as well as his four grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and two sisters. Lewis was an inspiration to many and will be remembered as an outstanding husband, father, soldier, churchman, community contributor, friend, and leader.

I ask the entire Senate to join me in recognizing and honoring the life of my great friend, Lewis Minor Stewart.●

COMMENDING KATIE'S CAFÉ

● Ms. SNOWE. Mr. President, tourism represents Maine's largest economic sector, and as a result, many of my State's nearly 150,000 small businesses are seasonal. But this year, between the deepest economic recession our country has faced since the Great Depression and a streak of unfortunate weather throughout Maine, these boutiques, shops, and restaurants are in many cases not experiencing the level of business they would traditionally. Despite these disparaging factors, one small restaurant in the town of Ogunquit, Katie's Café on Shore Road, recently undertook a significant and bold expansion to attract new customers.

While Katie's Café on Shore Road is a new restaurant on the scene, having opened just last year, it has already taken noteworthy steps towards establishing itself as a preeminent member and integral part of the local community. Katie's is owned by Rich Yurko; Donna Andersen; Rob Leary; and Katie Yurko, Rich and Donna's mother for whom the restaurant is named. An Alberta, Canada, native, Katie and her husband Mike, along with their six children, are known for their abundant energy and hospitality. The Yurko family's first foray into the hospitality business occurred in 1999, when they purchased Breakfast on the Connecticut, a luxurious bed and breakfast in Lyme, NH.

Although a new establishment, Katie's boasts a knowledgeable staff with years of experience in the restaurant industry. The café is run by David Carme, who brings with him a plethora of experience from some of Boston's finest restaurants, including Teatro, an upscale Italian restaurant in Boston's theatre district, and Mistral, a trendy French Mediterranean establishment in the city's south end. Katie's also added executive chef Jason Grant to the team in May. An experienced cook, Grant brings 20 years of culinary experience to this new position.

Following a successful first year of operation last year, Katie's Café used the winter to expand its facilities, adding 40 new seats including a new porch seating area. Additionally, Katie's increased its kitchen space as well as the size of its lounge. With this recent expansion, Katie's Café serves as the perfect meeting place where customers are assured that they will receive a five star dining experience in a welcoming, relaxed social environment. With its expanded capacity, Katie's provides a unique locale for special events such as birthdays, weddings, receptions, and family holiday gatherings. Additionally, the café hosts "Lounge Socials" every Saturday and Sunday, complete with complementary appetizers and drink specials.

In its short time on Shore Road, Katie's has already taken the initiative to join with other area businesses in making several community events successful. In particular, the restaurant helped sponsor last December's Christmas by the Sea festivities, and took part in the town's Cinco de Mayo weekend this past May. These annual celebrations are a true example of community spirit, and they draw new faces from across the region to explore Ogunquit and the surrounding towns of York County.

A noteworthy seasonal small business that has quickly made a name for itself, Katie's Café has taken several concrete steps to ensure that it has a bright future beyond these tumultuous times. I congratulate everyone at Katie's Café for their vision and creativity, and wish them many more successful seasons.●
